The automobile parade with the flags which included the wives, passed through another area of crowds, emotions and paper snow storms on the way to Madison square. Here the German airman joined their Irish companion in paying tribute with loyal wreaths to the Americans who died in the world war.

Ten thousand children from the public schools greeted the three heroes as they paraded past the public library steps.

At St. Patrick's cathedral they stopped to see Cardinal Hayes, kissing his ring.

Tomorrow the flyers will go to the Sub-Treasury building at Wall and Broad streets and place a wreath on the Washington statue. Tomorrow night the municipal dinner will be held at Hotel Comer.

KOEHL'S AUNT IN FLORIDA.

Mrs. Elizabeth Koehl Blum, who owns a little bakery at 2122 Main street, Florida, is an aunt of the transatlantic flyer, Capt. Hermann Koehl.

This news reached Chicago yesterday through Ludwig Plate, local head of the North German Lloyd steamship line, who has been in communication with Koehl. Mr. Plate announced that he has invited Mrs. Blum to be his guest during the flyers' expected visit here on May 12.

"I am going to arrange to have a special kitchen for her, so if Capt. Koehl has an appetite for a few German dishes, she can prepare them for him," Mr. Plate said.

After their visit to New York, according to the last word received here, the flyers will return to Germany and bring their own plane to Chicago. A huge all-day celebration has been planned in their honor by Mayor Thompson's citizens' committee, aided by the city's German and Irish organizations.

WOMAN WHO SANG BEFORE LINCOLN MARKS 86TH YEAR.

Receiving her friends and recounting again her meeting with Abraham Lincoln when she was a child of ten and humming snatches from the French songs she sang for the great emancipator, Mrs. Isabelle Landry of Aurora, yesterday celebrated her eighty-sixth birthday.

While she talked with friends, a well filled purse, the gift of Aurora business and professional men, was delivered to her and also a picture frame containing picture of herself as a child of ten and as she is today and a scroll containing her own story of her meeting with Lincoln.

ROBERT KILLS EDITOR.

Tampa, Fla., April 30.—(AP)—A. B. Stansbury, editor of the "Tampa Tribune," died yesterday, the victim, it is believed, of a robber who attacked him last Wednesday, near St. Petersburg.

JAILED, HE SAYS, BECAUSE HE ISN'T SALOON HABITUE

Victim Consults Attorney on Powers of Police.

J. E. Andersen, well to do printer who came to Chicago from Dallas, Tex., a year ago, consulted a lawyer in some bewilderment yesterday as to the powers of the Chicago police force. Mr. Andersen spent Sunday night in jail, he asserted, because he wasn't a hanger-on in a saloon.

Mr. Andersen is married, has three children and lives at 447 Deming place. He owns the Andersen Type Shop, 315 West 35th street. He spent Sunday evening working in his office, according to his story. It was a warm evening and Mr. Andersen waxed thirsty. After closing his office he decided to stop in at a saloon at 35th and Halsted streets where he had been informed, a good quality of beer was served.

Dozen Others There.

In the saloon were a dozen or more men lined up at the bar, Mr. Andersen said. He purchased a stein of beer. It was cold and palatable and he retired to a side table to enjoy it.

Two men entered the saloon, looked over the drinkers at the bar, and then eyed Mr. Andersen, he said. One of them walked over and said roughly, "Put your hands up!" at the same time producing a revolver of business-like size. Mr. Andersen obeyed.

"Well, huh," rejoined Mr. Andersen, who retains a Texan flavor to his speech, "I thought I was in one of those Chicago holdups. The man said 'Come along,' and I was sure then that I was to be taken for one of those rides I read about in the papas. I went along and we got into a car.

"Then, from their talk, I realized they were 'police-men.' And I was greatly relieved, huh. I told them: 'Gentlemen, my office is but a block away. I shall be pleased to escort you there and prove that I am not the suspicious character you take me for."

Mr. Andersen continued, with a pained expression, to tell his story. The policemen answered him roughly, he said, and refused to go to his office, paid no attention to the business card he offered them, and refused to let him telephone to any one. He was taken to the Deering street station and held without being booked. After two hours he was allowed to telephone a friend and finally obtained his freedom.

"But why did you arrest me?" queried Mr. Andersen of the two detectives after he had been given his liberty. "There were a dozen others in that saloon."

"O, we knew all them guys," Mr. Andersen was told. "They hang out in that saloon all the time. Yours was a strange face."

Two men, one armed with a pistol and the other with a blackjack, entered a beauty parlor at 1012 North State street yesterday at noon and after slugging the attendant, Miss Myrtle Gault, escaped with jewelry valued at $2,000. Miss Gault was tied in the rear room after her lips had been sealed with adhesive tape to prevent her screaming. She freed herself after an hour's struggle.

SCORCHED MONEY LEADS TO ARREST OF SAFE-BLOWER

Scorched edges on $7,500 in bank notes, which a quick thinking bank teller promptly surmised had been burned during the blowing up of a safe, led yesterday to the arrest of Mrs. Estelle Pfeiffer, 28 years old; her husband, Joseph, who was identified as a safe blower, and his brother, John Pfeiffer, aged 35.

Last Saturday the woman presented the money for exchange at the Washington Park National bank, 634 and Cottage Grove. The teller wrote a receipt and agreed to give new bills if she would return Monday.

Sergeant Walter Storms and his detective bureau squad were summoned and the bank was watched. When the trio drove up, they were covered with guns and placed under arrest. Joseph Pfeiffer was identified as a convicted safe robber.

CHICAGO GIRL THRILLS BERLIN OPERA AUDIENCE

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

BERLIN, April 30.—The first American to sing in the festive performances in the former Royal Opera house of Berlin after it had been rebuilt and enlarged was Marion Claire of Chicago. She was given an ovation tonight when she sang the role of Sophie in "Rosenkavalier," conducted personally by the composer, Richard Strauss.

The beauty of the Chicago girl, who came on the stage with her tulle colored locks, falling to her waist, the metallic timbre of her voice and its exquisite tone, as well as the gracefulness of her acting, won her enthusiastic applause. Together with Barbara Kemp and Herr Strauss, she took nine curtain calls and was showered with flowers.

Miss Claire will return in the fall to the Chicago Civic opera.

SHUMAKER, DRY BOSS IN INDIANA, FACES ARREST

Warrant Ordered by Attorney General Gilliom.

(Picture on back page.) Indianapolis, Ind., April 30.—(Special.)—An affidavit charging the Rev. E. S. Shumaker, superintendent of the Indiana Anti-Saloon league with violation of the corrupt practices act was filed in the St. Joseph county court today by Arthur L. Gilliom, state attorney general and candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator.

A warrant has been issued for Shumaker's arrest.

The affidavit is based on the article published last week in the Indiana edition of the American Issue, Anti-Saloon league paper, which followed its custom of several years of classifying the various Indiana candidates for office as "wet or dry of record."

The corrupt practices act makes it an offense to print a false statement about a candidate for the purpose of influencing voters. Conviction under this provision carries with it a fine of $500 to $1,000 and a maximum jail sentence of one year.

Gilliom Denies He's "Wet of Record."

Gilliom charges that the article listing him as "wet of record" was false and fraudulent, and that as a matter of fact he is "dry and not wet of record." He asserted the article was published for the purpose of influencing the dry voters of the state to cast their votes against him in the primary May 1.

Ralph K. Kane, campaign manager for Gilliom, today sent an open letter to Shumaker, charging him with deceit and misrepresentation in listing Gilliom. Kane pointed out what he termed "more than a coincidence" in the fact that an attack on Gilliom appeared in the Fellowship Forum, publication of the Ku Klux Klan, just in advance of the article in the Anti-Saloon league publication.

Shumaker asserted today the listing of Gilliom along with other candidates in the American Issue was not his personal action but that of a special committee of the league headquarters.

"I never knew a man who could hate as Gilliom does," the Anti-Saloon leader commented tonight.

Denies Klan Connection.

The Rev. Charles H. Winders, pastor of the Northwood Christian church here, and the Rev. W. B. Farmer, a Methodist and secretary of the preachers' aid society, were members of the special committee, Shumaker said, and added that there was no connection between the comment about Gilliom in the Klan paper and the Anti-Saloon league publication.

"The league has nothing to do with the Klan," Shumaker asserted. "Gilliom sought and received Klan support in the 1924 election. I can prove this assertion."

While Winders was quoted today as saying Shumaker collected practically all the information on which the blacklist of candidates was based, it had been his (Winders') general impression that Gilliom was "wet."

Gilliom today named ten persons who, he said, would be witnesses to his record as a dry. They were William H. Remy, Marion county prosecutor; Joe Hand Becker, Byron K. Elliott, Ralph Spear, and John K. Ruchelshaus, who formerly served as deputy attorney general under Gilliom in the prosecution of liquor cases in this county; J. Winders, a farmer; Harry Taylor, Glen Sawyer, and Louis Kunkel.

Passing tourists brought the injured to a Champaign hospital, where it was found that Miss Catherine Houtz, Elburn, Ill., had received a skull fracture and deep lacerations, one ear being completely severed.

'WE' DISSOLVED; LINDBERGH FLIES PLANE LAST TIME

Famous Ship Is Going to Institution.

Washington, D. C., April 30.—(P)—A partnership of the heights and distances which has won world-wide acclaim passed into history today as Col. Charles A. Lindbergh brought his cherished Spirit of St. Louis to earth at its last airport.

"We" participated in one last long hop. The trans-Atlantic flyer said the 725 air miles from St. Louis to Bolling field had been made in 4 hours and 58 minutes.

They came to be separated. In accordance with his promise, Lindbergh will turn his partner over to the Smithsonian institution.

Thirty army planes were "on the line" at Bolling field when the Spirit of St. Louis suddenly was heard overhead. Two other planes flanked the incoming as it soared toward the landing field. They swept aside as Lindbergh planned to earth.

Col. Lindbergh taxied the Spirit of St. Louis to a hangar door, sat quietly a moment, and then gathered a blue sweater and some baggage before stepping out. He wore a gray suit and a flying helmet.

The plane was put just inside the hangar. Lindbergh walked slowly around it, looking it over. He said

WIFE CHARGES HER HUSBAND SOLD HER WEDDING PRESENTS

Mrs. Violet C. Bartlett, 20 East Delaware place, yesterday charged that her husband, William A. Bartlett, realty broker, had an annual income of $100,000, spent $100 a week for liquor, and had sold the wedding presents he gave her, pocketing the receipts, and was now refusing to contribute to her support. He denied all of her charges. Superior Judge John J. Sullivan directed the husband to pay his estranged wife $25 a week pending a further hearing May 28.

HEIRESS DENIES ADVERTISING FOR HER IDEAL MAN

"Who's my correspondence sweetheart? That's a joke. I haven't any," laughed Miss Emma Lint, heiress to the estate of her wealthy father, Anton Lint, as she stepped off a train from Los Angeles here yesterday. California papers recently quoted her as saying she would marry her ideal man, and that she had received more than 150 offers.

"The only sweetheart I ever had," she averred, a big solitaire diamond flashing on her left hand as she touched her hair, "is a Chicago man I've known for years. And I never advertised for a husband. Some reporters saw me when my father's will was read and asked what I was going to do, and I said that since it was leap year I'd probably get married. All those letters I got I tore up and threw away. My friend from Chicago was in Los Angeles then and it made him furious."

"But I'm not telling right now who he is. Later I'll probably have an announcement to make."

SMOOT WARNS OF BOULDER DAM AS DEATH TRAP

Sees It as a Menace to Thousands of Lives.

Money Backs Bill

Los Angeles, Cal., April 30.—[Special.]—A resolution voted by the Los Angeles city council appropriating $1,000 a month to the Boulder Dam association for "expert services," in trying to influence the passage of Boulder dam legislation, was sent to Mayor George Cryer for his signature today. The appropriation provides six monthly payments.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.] Washington, D. C., April 30.—[Special.]—Engineering plans forming the basis of the Boulder canyon dam bill are "preposterously impossible," Senator Reed Smoot (Rep., Utah) asserted today in presenting an exhaustive analysis of the proposition to the senate.

Senator Smoot, who occupied the greater part of the afternoon and will continue his address tomorrow described the pending measure as "thoroughly unsound in every respect." He advocated the appointment of a board of engineers to make a complete investigation of methods of dealing with the Colorado river, favoring immediate action only on a proposal to build flood control works.

Flood Control Minor Object.

"I am sure that there is little appreciation of the magnitude or of the revolutionary character of this proposal," said Senator Smoot. "No doubt most of the senators are under the impression that this simply is another of the many internal improvement projects. I know that many believe that the primary purpose of the bill is to provide flood control for the Imperial valley in California.

"In fact, flood control is only a minor purpose of the project. There is said to be one hundred million dollars of property values to protect from flood. Flood protection and the only complete flood protection, through levees and channel dredging, can be provided for not more than $7,000,000 and it so provided would be available within two years at the most. Flood control and river regulation for irrigation through construction of a great dam on the river 120 miles closer to the property to be protected can, according to the available evidence, be provided for $15,000,000.

"Here we are asked to spend 125 million dollars on a great experimental power project where the flood control dam is 300 miles above the land to be protected and the time required for securing the flood protection will be at least 10 years if the bill should become a law at once.

Great Engineering Risk.

"I propose to disclose some facts concerning this bill, which to my mind absolutely and beyond question preclude the possibility of authorization of this project without further investigation.

"Do senators know that we are here being asked to authorize and by our vote to approve the greatest engineering risk in history?

"Do senators know that the plan which you are asked to approve and therefore accept responsibility for is a plan that is the subject of bitter disagreement among the engineers of the government service?

"Do senators know that you are being asked to substitute for a comparatively insignificant flood menace a menace to lives of thousands of people which might result in the greatest man-made disaster in history?

"Do senators know that if we pass this bill the responsibility for this engineering experiment is squarely and wholly upon us, because the responsibility has been passed to us by the secretary of the interior?

"Do senators know that in order to provide flood control and irrigation relief the only subjects in which we have any possible interest as federal officials it is wholly unnecessary not only to expend more than a fraction of the money here involved but to take any of these risks?"

Attacks Weymouth Report.

Senator Smoot emphasized the fact that the pending bill rests entirely upon the so-called Weymouth report prepared by engineers of the bureau of reclamation and that there are other plans which ought to have consideration.

Elaborating his point that the building of the dam might lead to "the most tremendous man-made catastrophe in the history of the human race," Senator Smoot pointed out that no dam in the world approximates the magnitude of this one.

"The Gatun dam, the Assouan dam, the Elephant Butte dam, and the Alamo dam, four of the greatest dams in the world, together contain a reservoir capacity of only about 8,000,000 acre feet of water, Senator Smoot said, or 15,000,000 acre feet less than the 25,000,000 acre feet capacity proposed at Boulder canyon.

Senator Smoot made comparisons with the St. Francis dam of the city of Los Angeles, breaking of which cost the lives of between 400 and 500 persons. Incidentally, Senator Smoot pointed out that William Mulholland, the engineer who selected the site of the St. Francis dam and approved its foundation as safe and adequate, was one of the engineer witnesses before congressional committees who vouched for the feasibility of the Boulder canyon project.

"The reservoir created by the St. Francis dam was only 38,000 acre feet at the time the catastrophe occurred," said Senator Smoot. "The Boulder reservoir, then, will contain seven hundred and twenty-two times as much water as destroyed the lives of between 400 and 500 people when the St. Francis dam of Los Angeles failed. We cannot visualize the catastrophe that would follow the breaking of the dam here proposed.

"The St. Francis dam was a dam of moderate dimensions. It was built according to conventional designs which have been tried and proved by experience. In fact, the maximum pressure between the bottom of the dam and its foundation was reported to have been only 12 tons per square foot, which is regarded as eminently conservative.

Try Dangerous Experiment.

"In this Boulder dam it is proposed not only to try the experiment of by far the largest mass of concrete ever attempted in history, with internal stresses that in the opinion of Gen. Goethals are indeterminate, but it is likewise proposed, in order to reduce the cost, to try the experiment of the extraordinarily high pressure of 40 tons per square foot.

"In this bill congress is asked to become the engineer of this adventure. The bill fixes the site of the construction within very close limits. If we pass this bill congress will have ordered, as a result of congressional engineering ability, that this dam be built at this particular spot, a spot which has been condemned by many competent engineers, who question whether the foundations of a dam can be established there, except at prohibitive cost."

SHANGHAI, April 30.—[Special.]—The Japanese, Shanghai and Gen. nationalist army. The southern generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, who has been in the capital since his escape from the Japanese, issued an ultimatum to the Japanese, demanding that they withdraw from the Shanghai area and that they cease their military operations in the Shanghai area.

Gen. Chiang's advance from the Shanghai area, through the mountains, to the town of Tientsin, where the Japanese line was broken, was reported by the Japanese.

Clash with Nipponese in Shantung Feared.

BY JOHN POWELL.

SHANGHAI, April 30.—A clash between the Japanese military forces in Shantung and Gen. Chiang Kai-shek's nationalist army is imminent. The southern generalissimo violated a Japanese order by cutting the Shantung railway some 50 miles east of Tsinan, the capital of Shantung province. Gen. Fukuda, commander of the Japanese intervention forces, had just issued an ultimatum forbidding interference with the railway between Tsinan and Tientsin, on the grounds that such action would be harmful to Japanese interests.

Gen. Chiang's forces, which advanced from the town of Tsinan through the mountains, suddenly appeared in the town of Mingshui. The railway line was immediately cut and the telegraph and telephone lines broken.

The northern general, Sun Chuan-fang, who was stationed at Tsinan, dispatched a force of 3,000 men to the scene and engaged the nationalist forces. The nationalists were defeated and retreated to the town of Chow-tsun, about 90 miles east of Tsinan where they were cut off from their base.

Japanese Send Troops.

According to Japanese reports from Tsinan, the Japanese have sent a small force armed with machine guns to Mingshui for the purpose of repairing the railway and telegraph lines. It is this force, which, it is feared, will clash with the nationalist troops. The nationalists tonight announced the complete occupation of Shantung province, excepting the area in the eastern section of the peninsula, which still is occupied by remnants of the northern forces, which have retreated from the central part of the province. Reports from Nanking say the two northern commanders in Shantung, Gen. Chang Chung-chang and Marshal Sun Chuan-fang, fled, presumably to Tientsin, where they joined Marshal Chang Tso-lin, the Manchurian war lord.

The Japanese, fearful of Chinese animosity, have begun to evacuate their women and children from towns along the Shantung railway.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
PEKING, April 30.—With a clash between Japanese and nationalist Chinese troops looming, the nationalist twenty-first army holds the railway between Mingshui and Lungshan, the former 88 miles and the latter 40 miles from Tsinan, capital of Shantung province.

The Japanese have massed 2,400 troops at Tsinan, where their nationalists are being concentrated and also are patrolling heavily the remainder of the railway. All available Japanese are being utilized for the western end of the railway, leaving only 700 blue-jackets at Tsinan, with the impression that Tokyo will send further troops from Manchuria.

Communists Being Executed.
SHANGHAI, April 30.—Execution of communists is taking place at Hankow daily, say messages from that city. One of the victims was a 17 year old girl, who acted as a member of the Red Tribunal which is held responsible for many sentences of torture and death.

The nationalists also crushed the first line northern defenses six miles north of Tsinan.

FILES PLEADING IN SLANDER SUIT AGAINST MAYOR

Charles E. Cleveland, attorney, yesterday filed a declaration in his $100,000 slander suit against Mayor Thompson growing out of the recent campaign for the Republican primary. The pleading sets up that charges voiced by the mayor against the plaintiff and Otis F. Glenn, candidate for United States senator, were "malicious and false and solely the creation of the wicked, vicious and venomous brain of the defendant."

Mayor Thompson, in campaign speeches, is reported to have accused Glenn and Cleveland, as counsel for the Soveringhaus Printing company, of having bribed a jury in the company's suit to collect a $150,000 printing bill from the Thompson political machine.

Judge Joseph David, before whom the printing case was tried, is quoted in the slander complaint as having said, "There is nothing in this case that reflects upon counsel, absolutely nothing." The men actually suspected of the jury bribing were tried and acquitted, Cleveland's suit points out.

FATHER AND GIRL KILLED AS TRAIN HITS THEIR TRUCK

Another Autoist Dies in Crossing Crash.

Five deaths from automobile accidents in Cook county were recorded yesterday, the county's toll since Jan. 1 soaring to 205. This is an increase of 21 over the total fatalities during the first four months of 1927. The tally by months, as kept by Coroner Oscar Wolff, follows:

Month	1927	1928
January	50	74
February	67	64
March	78	75
April	73	71
Total	268	284

Three of yesterday's deaths were due to two grade crossing crashes on the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, and Pacific railroad.

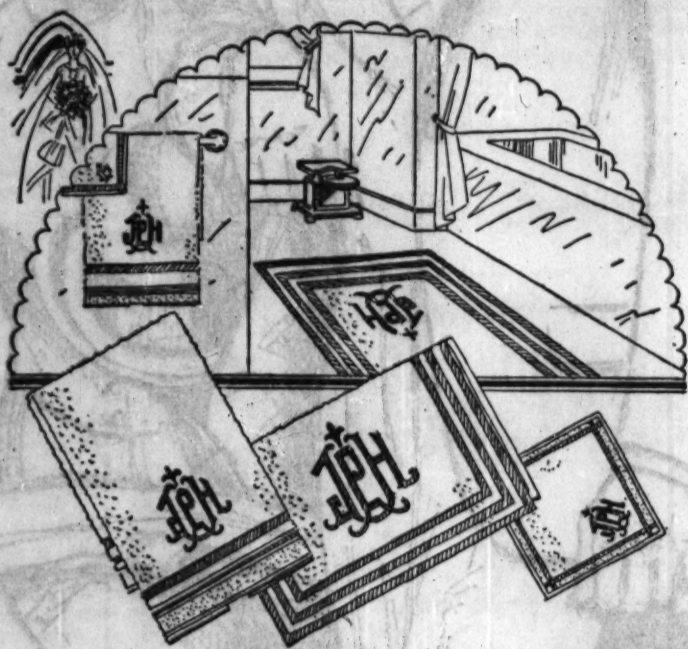

Father and Daughter Die.
Roy O'Brien, 42 years old of Bartlett, Ill., and his daughter, Virginia, 7 years old, were killed in Bartlett, Virginia, was riding with her father on his gasoline tank truck. A long row of freight cars near the unguarded crossing obstructed his view and he was hit by an approaching passenger train. The heavy tank was rolled several hundred feet, spilling its load of gasoline and crushing the father and girl to death. A spark would have set fire to the passenger coach, witnesses said.
Charles Sobol, 41, of 5743 West

North avenue, a hardware store owner, was killed after falling to the ground of a flagman at the North Narragansett avenue crossing, the witness said. Sobol, alone in his auto, was hit by a passenger train about two hours before the Bartlett accident. Harriet Dienek, 7 years old, 2104 West 18th place, was fatally injured by a motor truck when she darted from her father's side at South Ashland avenue and West 18th street. The driver was Henry Brede, 21, of 557 West 18th street.

Injury Is Fatal.
A fractured skull received April 13 proved fatal to James Wright, 50 years old. He was hit at Van Buren street and Racine avenue by an automobile driven by Theodore Batzest, 22, of 613 North Paulina street.
In a fight following a collision at Ogden and Ashland avenues, William Kurtz, 18, of 2111 West Adams street, and Leonard Clevenger, 20, of 3032 West Harrison street, occupants of one of the cars, were severely beaten with a crank handle by Louis Zimmerman 25, of 1824 Roosevelt Road, driver of the second car. Zimmerman was arrested.

William Krueger, 80 years old, a county highway motorcycle policeman, suffered a fractured skull as he drove into the rear of an automobile that was waiting for an approaching train to pass on the St. Paul railroad south of Des Plaines. The policeman said he was blinded by the lights of the locomotive.

Driver Flees Accident.
Thomas Kriscia, 29, of 1853 West 47th street, received a fractured skull and internal injuries when, while waiting for a street car at South Ashland avenue and West 43d street, he was struck by an automobile that did not stop after the accident.

MAYOR'S PLAN FOR

Three Trust Renewed

H. Wallace Calhoun, president of the Chicago School Board, appeared more than once before Mayor Thompson yesterday to discuss the school board's plan to renew the charter of the Chicago Public Schools. Since Calhoun's February school board appointment, he has been the subject of much speculation. The report yesterday that he would resign expires tomorrow. Mayor Thompson signed.

Two other appointments are expected. A. English, administrator of the Chicago Public Schools, and James E. H. of the finance department, are expected to be named. The board of trustees when the board meets before the expiration of the charter meeting.

WALGREEN

MAYOR'S SCHOOL PLAN IS BOOST FOR CALDWELL

Three Trustees Will Be Renewed Tomorrow.

H. Wallace Caldwell's election to the presidency of the board of education appeared more likely yesterday when word came from the city hall that Mayor Thompson was prepared to reappoint the three school trustees whose terms expire at tomorrow's meeting of the board.

Since Caldwell's appointment last February school officials have frequently predicted that he would succeed J. Lewis Coath to the presidency. The report yesterday adds strength to that prediction. Caldwell, whose term expires tomorrow, replaced Walter H. Raymer, minority trustee, who resigned.

Two Others Favored.

The other two trustees due for reappointment are Vice President John A. English, administration stalwart, and James E. Heringway, chairman of the finance committee, who presented the charges that led to the trial of William McAndrew and assisted the America First ticket as a speaker in the primary campaign.

According to sentiment expressed at the school board, Caldwell, who is 33 years old and the youngest member of the board, will be favored by five trustees when the election of president comes before the board at the organization meeting late in May. Indication that Caldwell has the backing of a coalition group was seen recently when he led the attack on Coath's ineffectual contract to the Harvey A. Hanson company of which Virgil Coath, son of the board president, is an official.

Coath Certain to Go. Two minority trustees, Mrs. Helen M. Hoffman and Dr. Otto L. Schmidt and two Thompson members, Walter H. Brandenburg and Oscar Durante joined with Caldwell in the defeat of the contract.

That Coath is to go at the expiration of his term is regarded as certain. The solid six that supported him throughout the McAndrew trial has disintegrated leaving Coath in control of but three votes. It is said.

YOUR COLD? SHOULD YOU NEGLECT IT?

This is an era of "preventive medicine" and "An ounce of prevention is most times worth a pound of cure."

Be warned by the following quoted question from a recently published book:

"It is estimated that at least one-half of the 3,000,000 or more sick beds constantly filled in the United States would be unnecessary, and over 50,000 yearly deaths might be prevented if such preventive measures as are entirely practicable were promptly undertaken."

Colds are mainly due to congestion, and nearly all disease is traceable to some derangement of the digestive organs.

As a matter of prevention—a good inside cleansing with the candy-like "LAXA LINKS" should always be "first-aid."

Congressman Rests Near Summer Home.

Wood, now ranking Republican member of the appropriations committee of the house, and Congressman Bryns, ranking Democratic member of that committee. Near them sat Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi and Senator Elmer Thomas of Oklahoma.

Other notables conspicuous in the throng were Rufus and William Dawes, Thomas E. Wilson, Representative Richard Barr, of the Illinois assembly, Lieut. Gov. Sterling of Illinois, Congressman Frank Reid of Illinois; former speaker David Shanahan of the Illinois assembly; James E. Gorman, president of the Rock Island railroad; Postmaster Arthur Lueder; Michael Faherty.

Funeral Rites Simple.

The service was very simple and without denominational infusion. The chaplain of the house of representatives, the Rev. James Shera Montgomery, who had come from Washington with the congressional escort of honor, conducted it. There was a song when the hush of the hour of parting had enveloped the stately mansion. There was a consolatory prayer by Chaplain Montgomery and the reading by him of the 23d psalm and other scriptural passages.

The funeral sermon was curious. It bore more upon the man whom the gentle chaplain had known—and that man could be very gentle—than upon the restless, dominant, plain-talking man whom the world of politics and the committee rooms of the south end of the capitol knew and whom Calvin Coolidge trusted and often consulted.

These are sentences from the long, long sermon:

"He touched poverty, he touched wealth, he touched prestige, and he took the curse from them all."

"He could not spell the words 'narrowness' and 'bigotry.' They never entered his mind."

"He had no superficialities of thought or character or language and I fondly recall his love for the good monosyllabic words."

"No" Full of Authority.

That last was a vivid and authentic tribute. For Martin Madden's favorite monosyllable, in relation to the republic's money, was "no."

When George Jones, the Madden butler, was last year about to take out his American citizenship papers and was acknowledging that it "made him feel a bit queer" to forswear allegiance to his king, Martin Madden comforted him by saying, "Well, George, you are a subject today of

ALL CHURCHES PLAN SPECIAL PRAYERS ON RESULT OF PRIMARY

Special prayers of thanksgiving for Chicago's "civic awakening and recent victory of good government" will be offered in all the churches in the city on Memorial day, May 23, as the result of a pronouncement presented to the Union ministers yesterday by the Rev. Philip Yarrow, chairman of the political action committee of the Chicago Church federation.

"With gratitude toward God we acknowledge answer to our prayers for a civic awakening by the results shown on primary election day," reads the pronouncement in part.

"With no desire to inject any sectarian issue, we again declare that our hope for Chicago's redemption from crime, graft, misuse of public funds and corruption in courts and other high places of government lies in our religious leadership of all faiths."

"We recommend to all churches that special prayers of thanksgiving be made on Memorial Sunday for the recent victory of good government and that then reference be made to the fact that all voters must register anew in the fall in order to carry the victory through the important November elections."

England, and England's a great and glorious country, but tomorrow you'll be a citizen of the United States, and this side of heaven, George, there's no greater or more glorious country than that!"

The sermon on the amazing development of Martin Madden's powers and ideals in late life, and on his rising to noble opportunity, was preached and epitomized by the presence at the obsequies of high politicians and mere politicians.

With him some of them had risen: what he once was some of them have remained. For he who, in his city council days, was no ingenuous and no slavishly altruistic manipulator of men and measures became at last a wise and disinterested statesman, whose usefulness to his country was founded on his wrath at waste and graft.

For his genius for intensive toll the congressman for the First district of Illinois paid a heavy penalty. Toll would bring recurrence of the heart attacks and excessive restlessness. Upon such attacks he would say "I think I'll go to England. Thus in his seventy-three years did he cross the Atlantic fifty-seven times.

So from the spacious, homey old house with its evergreens and its lawns and its flag flying at half staff they bore him to well earned rest.

ELECTION BOARD ASSERTS HAFFA LOST TO ALBERT

Former Alderman Arthur F. Albert was declared winner over Ald. Titus Haffa as Republican committeeman of the 43d ward last night by President McGuire of the election board following the board's canvass of votes in two disputed precincts, the 5th and the 28th. Both precincts gave Albert heavy majorities. McGuire stated Albert will be given a certificate of election.

In the 5th precinct, no tally sheets were filed out and the commissioners ascertained the results from the "dum-mies." Albert received 204 and Haffa 77. Many ballots, stolen from the 28th precinct polling place, were found in a near-by street and returned. The board's count gave Albert 299 and Haffa 18 in this precinct. Albert thus received a total of 503 to Haffa's 95 in the two disputed precincts or enough to make him a sure winner, McGuire said.

Waitress Dies of Wound, Restaurant Boss Confesses

Shortly before the death last night at the county hospital of Mrs. Jesse Thomas, 23 years old, Tony Calerno, proprietor of a restaurant at 1808 South Wabash avenue confessed to Hyde Park police that he shot the woman during a quarrel over the amount of wages due her as a waitress. Following the shooting Mrs. Thomas was taken to their home at 4349 Oakwood avenue by her husband.

5 Committeemen to Act;
Voters Ask Voice.

BY JAMES DOHERTY.

Two big jobs, an anti-crime resolution and seven judgeships, were on the political menu yesterday.

First comes the selection of a successor to Congressman Martin B. Madden, who was buried yesterday. Daniel Scritella, Daniel Jackson, Oscar De Priest, W. S. Finck, and John Oberhauser, Republican ward committeemen of the five wards in the First Congressional district—which Madden represented for twenty-four years—are to meet at 2 o'clock today to name a successor for the nomination.

All five committeemen are held to be responsive to the will of Mayor Thompson, Jackson and De Priest are colored and the population of the First Congressional district is said to be 50 per cent Negroes. De Priest, the nomination and he said yesterday he was certain he would get it.

Voters Want Referendum.

The Democratic organization is without a vote on this matter, but there is a widespread demand among the colored voters for some sort of popular expression as to who shall be the first of their race to sit in congress after a lapse of a quarter century.

One element is making demands on behalf of Assistant Attorney General William Harrison. They are circulating petitions asking Gov. Small to call a special primary in conjunction with the June 4 election, and the voters to have the five committeemen responsible for the choice of that primary and tender the nomination for the full two-year term to be voted on in November.

The Democratic people expect the appointment of Henry C. W. Laubenthal as United States marshal to succeed the late Palmer Anderson. Senator Deen said last night that he hadn't time to discuss the proposed anti-crime plank and the judicial convention with his associates as yet. They are to take those questions up today, he said, the judicial convention being tomorrow.

Coalition Is Indicated.

Indications were that there would be coalition, the Democrats renominating Superior Judges Martin Gridley, John J. Sullivan, and Joseph Sabath, whose terms expire, and the Republicans nominating Judges Walter P. Steffen, Jesse Holdom, and Worth P. Caylor. The Circuit court vacancy, caused by the death of Judge Hoses Wells, makes an additional Republican place.

There has been talk of State's Attorney Crowe, but he has said he wasn't a candidate, and the name of Judge Robert E. Gentzel has been mentioned.

If the Deen people decide to offer the anti-crime plank—which was objectionable to Mayor Thompson and Mr. Crowe when it was mentioned at the state convention, April 20—there may be a fight precipitated that would result in full tickets being named by the Democrats and by the Thompson Republicans who control the county committee.

Senator Deen and Mayor Thompson were seated together in the Palmer house yesterday at a lunch attended by forty congressmen and three United States senators who were in Chicago to attend the Madden funeral. It was the first meeting of the two leaders of rival Republican factions since the primary. They chatted together with apparent amity.

PUNISHMENT FOR THE POLITICAL CRIMES.

It is three weeks today since the primary election. Just before the election a Republican candidate for ward committeeman, a man of influence in his section, was murdered. It was plainly a political crime. Before the election the homes of Judge Swanson and Senator Densen were bombed. These were political crimes. They day of the election another Republican candidate for ward committeeman was murdered, again a political crime. The day of the election there was intimidation and terrorism in many precincts. Citizens acting as watchers at the polls were kidnapped and slugged. Workers and election officials were locked up in vacant rooms, chased home, or beaten. Gunmen traveled in cars on raids.

Gangland tried to steal this election by methods which would outlast anything ever before attempted in Chicago, and it failed. It was licked all along the line. That was satisfactory. It was necessary. If there had been any other result future opposition to rascality would have been handled with pineapples and machine guns and terrorist methods would have been relied on to provide government. The election results were satisfactory, but what has been done since the election is not. No one has been discovered for punishment. There have been no arrests which meant anything. There have been no indictments. The murders, bombings, kidnappings, and assaults are unsolved. These political crimes are being permitted to fade into the background.

The office of the state's attorney is controlled by one of the defeated candidates. The police are controlled by the head of the defeated organization. The crimes were committed for the benefit of this organization against the candidates and the workers of the opposition. The attorney general was a candidate on the successful side, but he has revealed nothing but indecision in the face of the outrages.

It is apparent that nothing can be gained by expecting it from the combinations of prosecution and police which were to gain from the methods used. The attorney general may take at least a formal part in a real effort to clean this situation up and bring the criminals to exemplary punishment, but the citizens who revolted in the election against the prevailing order of things will have to assert themselves to get action.

What is required is a special grand jury, a special prosecutor of no factional associations, and special funds to conduct an inquiry which will go to the bottom and get results. It can be done. These political crimes are not beyond the reach of justice if the work can be taken out of the hands of authorities who are not interested in seeing that the criminals are found and the crimes punished. The city cannot afford to go back to sleep on this.

SOUTHERN REPRESENTATION.

In instructing a grand jury which might be called on to investigate events surrounding the recent Illinois primary election, Federal Judge Wilkerson brought to the jury's attention section 19 of the federal code, which makes it an offense for two or more persons to conspire to injure, threaten, or intimidate any citizen in the free exercise of any right or privilege guaranteed him by the constitution or laws of the United States.

Remarking upon Judge Wilkerson's charge to the jury, Representative Tinkham of Massachusetts inquired why federal judges in the south had not invoked this same section of the federal code in order to insure Negroes their franchise rights. Representative Tinkham has pending a resolution for an investigation by the census committee of disfranchisement of Negroes in southern states. He has little hope, he says, of getting his resolution to a vote. But he promises to keep on and, failing to get action on his resolution, will attempt to reach the question when the reapportionment bill comes up by demanding amendments to cut southern representation in accordance with the constitution.

It is the attitude of the people in most states where the right to vote is not abridged by laws technically within the constitution, but actually affecting only the Negro, that the southern states have their own peculiar problem, and a serious one, and should be permitted to work it out in their own way.

The south has reiterated its defense that its discriminatory laws are within the letter, though admittedly without the spirit, of the constitution. The Supreme court decisions have been most compliant to the southern contention, and there the matter rests, so far as political rights are concerned.

But there it ought not to rest; the north has a right to insist, in so far as it affects the representation of the south at Washington, where laws are made with the assistance of southern congressmen for the nation as a whole.

Section 2 of the fourteenth amendment declares denying the vote to a certain proportion of its otherwise qualified electorate shall be reduced in that same proportion.

The fourteen southern states now have 119 representatives in congress. Were the fourteenth amendment enforced and their representation reduced in the same ratio that the franchise right is abridged, they would be entitled to only 65 representatives.

The right of the southern states to an unconstitutional representation is one that does affect the other states. Let the south, if it has to, settle its own internal problems of race as it will by force of laws governing only its own people. But concerning the representation of the south in the settlement of national questions the states where the vote is not abridged on account of race have an interest and, now aroused, have a right to raise the point and ask the south's intentions.

LET THE COLORED VOTERS
CHOOSE THEIR OWN.

With the death of Representative Martin B. Madden, the First congressional district is left without a congressman and without a Republican candidate for congressman at the fall elections. It devolves upon the governor to call a special election to let the voters of the district choose a representative to fill the actual vacancy, but the selection of a nominee to fill the place on the Republican ticket is left to the congressional committee composed of the Republican committeemen of the five wards in the district.

If the governor obeys the statutes and calls the special election, the voters will pick some one to represent them until next March. But the man who represents the district from March 4, 1929, until March 4, 1931, will—since the district is solidly Republican—be, not the choice of the people, but the choice of the ward committeemen who picked him as Republican candidate.

A movement has been started to rectify this situation. It is being proposed that the congressional committee postpone its choice; that the governor call a special election for June 4, the date of the judicial election; and that the committee accept a representative chosen in June as the Republican candidate to run in November.

The choice of the First district's next representative in congress is of peculiar importance.

Including as it does the greater part of Chicago's heavily populated colored neighborhoods, the district is politically controlled by Negro voters. It is considered a certainty that the district's next representative in Washington will be a Negro, the first to sit in congress for a quarter century.

In the words of a colored leader, Edgar B. Brown, head of a movement to send Negro representatives to congress from Negro districts: "The selection of the man who is to have the nomination for Mr. Madden's seat is of importance not only to our district but to our people throughout the country and to the nation itself, since it may have a decided bearing for or against the solution of the Negro problem."

This is no overstatement. The colored communities of Chicago have their own representatives in the state legislature, their own aldermen in the city council, and men of their own race in several high and many lower official positions. On grounds of strict constitutional justice, they deserve their own choice, regardless of color, in the house of representatives at Washington. But to send a Negro to the general assembly of a northern state or to the council of a northern city is a different matter from sending a Negro to sit at the national capital, where all the states of the Union, southern as well as northern, are represented. The first Negro to go to congress since 1801 will have the eyes of more than his own district, of more than his own people, upon him.

The first congressional district should see to it that the man they select represents the best among the colored people of Chicago.

The congressional committee will be strictly within the law if it disregards the request made upon it to postpone its choice and to choose, when it does choose later, the candidate selected by the voters at the special election. If it uses its legal power and does this, however, it will be acting against the interests of its constituency and will be doing so only to serve its own political ends. The colored voters of the First district should be allowed to choose their own representative in congress, keeping in mind that the man of their choice will not be their representative alone, but will be looked on by the whole nation as the Washington representative of the colored people of the United States.

UNCONSCIOUS ALLIES OF MAYOR OF CHICAGO.

[Special Correspondent Interview.]
An association in this country calls itself the "English Speaking Union" and its activities, ill advised at times, afford Mayor Thompson of Chicago and other Anglophobists some foundation, flimsy as it is, for their tirades against England and King George and their attempt to inject that issue into our national and local politics.

This English Speaking Union of the United States has as its luncheon guest at the Hotel Roosevelt in New York the editor of the New Statesman in London, Mr. Ratcliffe. If his mission in this country was to determine from his utterances on that occasion, he is over here to beat the bush for a reopening of the war debt settlement and further reductions.

He was too adroit to propose that openly, and came at it by a flank attack. "There are no proposals from the British for any modification of the debt settlement entered into by the Baldwin government in 1925. In fact, there is nothing from our side in the slightest degree for the modification of debts," he said. But—

There is deep, intense, and growing antipathy in Europe, and particularly in Great Britain, against the United States that we have known in the lifetime of any one here today. In his opinion, "events themselves in the near future will bring about a situation that will show to the whole world that a revision of the debt settlement will be advisable."

Then up spoke the vice president of the English Speaking Union, Maj. George Haven Putnam, with ready acquiescence in the purpose of the speaker. "I would like to see," he said, "a large reshaping of that debt because of our kindness in getting into the war and in order to bring us into more civilized relations with our kinsfolk and other allies."

That brushes aside as inconsequential the fact that good faith and fulfillment of pledges, between nations even more than between individuals, have always been regarded, from time immemorial, as the firm and only adequate foundation for "civilized relations."

The big idea of the English Speaking Union seems to be that in the interest of international friendship and the cordial good will of the borrowing countries, we should yield to their persistent wheedling, coaxing, "high-baiting," and frequent resort to threats, covert or open, and cancel the other half of the debt that we have, in financial fact, canceled already to the extent of about 66 per cent.

If we did that the odds would be that we wouldn't win their cordial friendship, wouldn't ally their envy, and would forfeit their respect by being set down as the monumental "easy mark" of all time.

OLD "AGED IN THE WOOD."
In a certain sense bottled liquor had an inning, in a recent number of the New England Medical and Surgical Journal. The writers, Dr. Reid Hunt and Mr. Lythgoe, found that bottled and moonshine were about as good and under many circumstances, even better and safer than fire old whiskey. Their findings were confirmed by H. V. Atkinson in the Journal of the American Pharmaceutical Association.

One specimen analyzed was a bottle of old bottled in bond pre-war stuff, the kind men keep locked up in the safe. As to fire old, one time legitimate whiskey the chemists found it purest when first made. As it ages in wood it picks up harmful substances from the wall of the package and develops others of its own. The very substances which give the color, the flavor, and appearance of age are sources of harm, secondary only to the alcohol itself.

A specimen aged for eight years in a barrel was found to have a more toxic older and more respectable it became. Eight years of aging increased the fusel oil forty to seventy per cent; increased the aldehydes two hundred to three hundred per cent; furfural, 150 to 250 per cent; the acids, 700 to 1300 per cent; esters, 250 to 450 per cent. The meaning of all this is that good raw whiskey hot from the worm carries less knockout drops than very respectable, old bottled in bond, aged in wood stuff.

Crampton and Tolman, who examined a great many whiskeys, including one specimen of twenty year old stuff, announce that they are of the same opinion.

Another conclusion is that all of this talk about the purity of so-called medicinal whiskey is the bunk. The fine, rare, reddish brown aged liquor, which the sick must have regardless of price and everything else, ranks about the worst of all the straight whiskeys. A doctor thinks his patient must have whiskey, and wants him to get the best, he should find a specimen of freshly distilled white malt, fresh and clear as spring water, and take that. The middle of the run and, therefore, free from heads and tails. He must see that the specimen has not been tampered with, that it contains no wood alcohol, and does not smell of liniment or cologne. In fact, the less aroma or head, and the freer from color it is, the better.

All respectability is relative. Whether old whiskey has been demoted or moonshine has been elevated, the chemists are on about the same level now that the chemists have spoken.

YOU SHOULD BE EXAMINED.
Mr. A. B. C. writes: I should like to know what causes the mouth, tongue and lips. They feel as though I had been eating very hot condiments. I have had this condition for several months, and it is worse some days than others. Last night my mouth feels raw. Could it be caused from diseased teeth? I am 58 years of age.

REPLY.
You should be examined.
Pericarditis, aneurysm, and pneumonia sometimes start with the symptom you complain of.

Furthermore, your teeth may need attention.

YOUR DOCTOR BEST JUDGE.
R. B.: I can convulsions come from rickets?

REPLY.
2. My baby is 15 months old. He has had convulsions. He has rickets and I have had twelve sunlight treatments given to him. Do you think this enough? Do you think he will get those convulsions any more?

REPLY.
1. Yes.

2. Your physician is the best one to decide that.

ALBUMIN IN URINE.

L. J. writes: 1. What causes albumin in the urine?

REPLY.
2. Can it be cured by dieting?

REPLY.
3. Is it serious?

REPLY.
1. There are several causes. Inflammation of the kidneys is the most important of these.

2. Dieting is of great service in inflammation of the kidneys. The diet inflammation differs from that of chronic Bright's disease.

3. Yes, though much depends on the cause. Even these cases where inflammation of the kidneys is the cause the seriousness varies.

FOR SERVICES RENDERED.
Chicago, April 28.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—Can a creditors' association force payment by garnishment of wages of a resident of Illinois for osteopathic treatment received four years ago in Missouri, which were a complete failure? Have just received notice of claim through the creditors' association.

Paying for Damages.
Midlothian, Ill., April 27.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—Is there a law that domestic help is required to pay for things that are broken while being employed? 2. Is there a law that the employer does not have to pay you for a whole day's work if the employee quits?

REPLY.
1. Depends on whether the breakage is due to a failure to exercise the care and skill that the employer has reason to expect.

2. There is no such absolute rule. The obligation to pay would depend upon whether the employment was by the week or by the month and whether the employer had finished the week or month in question.

TRIBUTE LAW DEPARTMENT.
PUBLIC DISGRACE.
Chicago, April 25.—[Friend of the People.]—Can some one tell me why the garbage and ashes are not completely removed from the vacant lot between Warwick avenue and Grace street on Crawford avenue? The lot is a disgrace to our city and unhealthy for the inhabitants.

It is not a function of the city to clean up vacant lots. All ashes at alley line will be removed and notices served on householders to see further dumping on vacant lot.

THOMAS H. DYKES,
Superintendent of Streets.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

How to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.

So far as we are concerned, the Chicago World's Fair Centennial Celebration of 1933 is now a success. As head of one of the million or more families in this territory, we have sent our five smackers, requested from each such head, as contribution to the public, or popular, fund. Just because we happened to think of it, and did so, far be it from us to assume any undue air of virtue, but certainly we may remind there is no time like the present to perform this little act, thereby showing the public spirited citizens in charge of organization and development, men whose time is far more valuable than any of our five spots, that we, as residents of Chicago, are back of them as a unit in this civic enterprise.

FORGIVEN BUT NOT FORGOTTEN.

A fond heart may forgive a wrong
And stifle all the rising pain;
But love's no longer glorified—
It's never quite the same again.
And harsh words may be overlooked,
But not forgotten. Ah, the heart
Is n'er so tender after that—
It never quite outgrows the smart.
Like down that's rubbed from off a peach,
Love's hater is destroyed for aye;
Love lives, but is less beautiful
With all the glamour passed away
When need arises to forgive,
Then love is fazed to pay the debt.
'Tis not so easy to forgive
And still less easy to forget.

EARLIER CHICAGO.
Dear Harvey: Do you remember "Ward's Exchange," of which Matt J. Ward was proprietor? It was located at 133 Van Buren street, and in the '80s advertised its location as "Opposite New Board of Trade."

This thirteenth parlor was in full swing when the Board of Trade in 1885 moved to its present location. It was the first place in Chicago to serve coffee balls. Free lunch, from soup to pie, was offered every day, and there were many on the board then who could not afford to spend money on a more expensive lunch.

The cost was a shot of Bourbon (barrel) for 10 cents and a 5 cent cigar, if, perchance, the trader was prosperous that day. It was bottle Bourbon (C & G), two for a quarter and a 10 cent cigar. They were the days.

Do You Remember Way Back When?
On a memorable Friday afternoon, at the old Brown school, an exceedingly timid boy had been ejected into delivering the oration of Marcus Brutus over the dead Caesar, and can you not still hear the yell of delicious surprise and joy when just as he flung out his hand in dramatic gesture toward the room door and called out, "Here comes the body!"—lo and behold, the door unexpectedly opened and in walked the tall and excessively portly school engineer—M. SKETCHES OF THE NEWS

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

MAY 1, 1863.

PHILADELPHIA, Agent Bureau, who has just returned from the Army of the Potomac, says that on the night of May 28 pontoons were laid and that yesterday morning Gen. Hooker's army began crossing the Rappahannock. By 10 o'clock our four regiments were across in safety. Cannonading and severe firing have been heard.

MURFREESBORO, Tenn.—The near approach of the rebel army has afforded opportunity to deserters to come within our lines. They confirm the report of the rebel advance to a point north of Duck river, and say that rebel commanders, Bragg, Breckenridge and Polk, talk boldly and loudly of their intention to drive Rosecrans out of Tennessee.

CHICAGO.—G. J. Englehart of Kansas and Miss C. M. Loomis of Chicago were married on April 30 by the Rev. W. H. Ryder.

CHICAGO.—Stockholders of the Chicago Fireman's Insurance company elected the following directors: Thomas Church, B. W. Raymond, Orrington Lunt, J. K. Botsford, P. L. Yoe, E. H. Haddock, James Ward, J. McCord, and Sol A. Smith. Mr. Church was re-elected president and C. N. Holden secretary.

30 YEARS AGO TODAY

MAY 1, 1898.

HONGKONG.—Commander Dewey's American squadron is in sight of Manila. The fleet has already captured four Spanish prizes. The Spanish warships, instead of giving battle, are in hiding. They have not cool enough to permit them to escape. There is little prospect of a battle unless a surprise is contemplated.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Prospective operations in Cuba have received a serious setback and rumors are afloat that even the temporary landing of troops may be abandoned. Unfortunately for the aspirations of the soldiers who hoped to have the honor of Cuba to the queen regent, President McKinley has been supplied with a series of discouraging reports in regard to health conditions in Cuba. These show that the Spanish forces in Cuba during the last year lost 20,000 men, 20,000 were invalided and sent home. This loss of 60,000 men has staggered the officials here and the President hesitates to assume the responsibility of exposing American soldiers to almost certain death by disease.

LONDON.—The Berlin correspondent of the Sunday Special asserts that the queen regent of Spain has appealed to the czar, through Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria, to assist Spain in her conflict with the United States. Emperor Nicholas replied directly to the queen regent, assuring her of his deepest sympathy with Spain, on which country the United States had forced war, stating, however, that he does not consider matters yet ripe for Russian diplomatic or military intervention.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE.—Up to late today the badly punished German troops along the Flanders front had made no further attacks against the allied lines which held so brilliantly throughout yesterday's intense fighting. Gen. von Arnim, the German commander, was reforming his lines and presumably bringing up fresh troops.

CHICAGO.—The Chicago Herald passes out of existence with this morning's issue, after a career of almost four years under the management and editorship of James Keely, who in May, 1914, consolidated the Record-Herald and the Inter Ocean under the name of the Herald. The paper was bought by William Randolph Hearst, who will today absorb it into the Chicago Examiner.

CHICAGO.—Municipal Judge Howard Hayes was divorced by his third wife two hours after she filed her bill charging cruelty. She resumed her former name of Grace Houston and was given alimony of $224 a month.

NEW YORK.—Miss Eleanor Pomeroy, daughter of Theodore L. Pomeroy of this city and Greenwich, Conn., and Clarke Washburne, son of the late Hempted Washburne of Chicago, were married at the St. Regis hotel.

GERMANS ACCEPT U. S. PROPOSALS TO OUTLAW WAR

Brush Aside Objections Raised by France.

Washington, D. C., April 30.—(Special.)—Germany's unqualified acceptance of the American proposals for the conclusion of an anti-war treaty by the principal powers was announced late today at the state department. In an official note made public by

Secretary of State Kellogg, the German government wholeheartedly indorses the Kellogg plans and announces its readiness to enter immediately into negotiations with the leading powers for the consummation of a pact binding the signatories not to use war as an instrument of national policy.

The German government brushes aside French fears that an unconditional anti-war treaty would conflict with the league of nations or a nation's right of self-defense and takes the position that reservations to the American draft treaty are unnecessary. Adoption of the American plan would strengthen the league and the Rhine agreements in the opinion of the German government.

Takes Advance Position.

It is evident throughout the note of acceptance that Germany is prepared to take a more advanced position than Mr. Kellogg has outlined. In almost every instance the German republic refers to the proposed treaty as a pact for the outlawry of war.

The German president voices the belief that the ratification of an anti-war treaty will give a real impulse to the efforts throughout the world for the carrying out of general disarmament.

Analysis of the German note shows that government agrees with Mr. Kellogg that the league covenant should not act as a bar to the negotiation of anti-war treaty.

Strengthens League Covenant.

"Respect for the obligation arising from the covenant and the Rhine pact must in the opinion of the German government remain inviolable," the note states. "The German government is, however, convinced that these obligations contain nothing which could in any way conflict with the obligations provided for in the draft treaty of the United States. On the contrary it believes the proposed pact could only serve to strengthen the fundamental idea of the covenant of the league and the Rhine pact."

The German government agreed with Mr. Kellogg that it would not be necessary to have all the powers ratify the treaty before it would go into effect.

An indication of the importance Germany attaches to the negotiations as a peace measure is disclosed by the following extracts from the note:

"The German government welcomes most warmly the opening of negotiations for the conclusion of an international pact for the outlawry of war. Germany has no higher interest than to see the possibility of armed conflicts eliminated. The conclusion of a pact such as the United States now has in view would certainly bring the nations a great deal nearer to this goal. This new guarantee for the maintenance of peace must give a real impulse to general disarmament."

"The renunciation of war must enlarge the possibilities of settling in a peaceful way the existing and potential conflicts of national interests."

LISTS TO REVEAL WHO AND WHAT IN REALTY TAXES

Protests Spur Officials to Seek Reforms.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

While thousands milled about and mauled each other in the county collector's office yesterday to pay probably $18,000,000 or $20,000,000 in taxes, the board of assessors and board of review agreed to a publication of the real estate assessment rolls.

Other activities indicate a political recognition of the storm of protest against high taxes this year. Chairman John S. Clark of the council finance committee said he will ask meeting today for passage of his tax resolution. That provides for a conference of the heads of the several tax-expending bodies to devise some plan to reduce the tax burden.

Would Aid Delinquents. County board members, who at a week ago to suspend immediate operation of the state law fixing May 1 as the time within which taxes must be paid without penalty, started new efforts yesterday. They prepared a resolution instructing their attorneys to appear in the County court when judgment is asked against tax delinquents, to add those who have been deprived of an opportunity to pay their taxes before the penalty attached under the statute, without any fault on their part.

This resolution was signed yesterday by Commissioners Cermak, Schmidt, Jaganowski, Newby, Metzger, Buttel, Fritz, Kavanaugh, Busch, and Wilson.

The plan to publish tax valuations and taxes levied on real estate caused considerable comment among politicians and officeholders.

The section of the statute requiring publication is mandatory, but the form of publication required is not specific. The law simply says that the assessment rolls shall be published and a copy mailed to each property holder in each precinct.

Will Give Many Details.

Heretofore it has been contended that publication of the assessment rolls meant publication of the legal description of the property. The agreement yesterday between the county commissioners and C. C. Carahan and Roy Massena, attorneys for the board of assessors and board of review, respectively, is that the publication shall consist of the name of the owner or payer of taxes, the street number, size of the lot, value of the land, value of the improvement by both board of assessors and board of review.

That information will be in a form that any person can readily understand. Certain politicians are afraid such information before the next election day may make a local question a prominent issue in November. Some do not want publication before the annual hearings before the board of review, which starts next July on the 1928 valuations on which taxes will be collected next year.

Homeopaths Gather for 73d Convention Today

Homeopathic doctors of the state will gather today at the Palmer house for the 73d annual convention of the Illinois Homeopathic association. The meetings, over which Dr. Harold Miller, vice president of the association, will preside, will continue until Thursday. Prof. Richard C. Borden of New York, managing director of the American Institute of Homeopathy, will be the principal speaker at a banquet in the hotel tomorrow night.

COAL COMPANY PAYS MINE REDS, SENATORS TOLD

Washington, D. C., April 30.—(AP)—Charges that the Pittsburgh Coal company had given financial aid to radical activities threw the senate coal committee into a turmoil today.

Louis McGraw, editor of the Labor World of Pittsburgh, who made the charges, and Don Rose, counsel for the coal company, argued hotly over the point.

McGraw's charge that the Pittsburgh company had fostered communistic endeavor among the miners was branded as "maliciously false" by Rose, who in turn was described by the editor as "a fixer ever since you became attorney for the Pittsburgh Coal company."

"I've never fixed a jury in my life," Rose retorted. "There's nothing to any of this."

McGraw then threatened to come before the committee in two weeks and tell enough about Rose "to make the ceiling fall down."

The editor outlined what he termed a history of "red propaganda" in the Pennsylvania fields since 1920 and in that connection named the Save-the-Union committee and the Pennsylvania and Ohio Relief society.

J. D. A. Morrow, president of the Pittsburgh Coal company, said that charges made that the officials of the company are cognizant of illicit liquor traffic in mining communities are "deliberate, malicious falsehoods."

"It has been asserted here that disorderly houses are maintained in the mining towns, and it has been insinuated that this is done with the knowledge of company officials," Morrow continued.

"This is a malicious and vicious lie."

DETERMINES SEX OF CHICKENS BY X-RAY ON EGGS

New York, April 30.—(AP)—The treatment of fertilized hen's eggs by X-ray so that only female chickens can be hatched was one of a series of remarkable experiments described to the Associated Press for the first time by Dr. William H. Diefenbach of the Flower hospital.

The experiments extending over three years, he said, have brought to light that chickens hatched from eggs which have been exposed to X-rays show certain marked peculiarities. Exposures up to several hours produce chickens with deformations, or such mutilations as absence of wings.

In many instances, he explained, the mutilations are for the better and tend to create a new and improved species of chickens. Dr. Diefenbach and his associates in the New York Homeopathic Medical college and Flower hospital regard the results of the experiments as of extraordinary importance.

May Lead to Life Secrets.

To the scientists, Dr. Diefenbach believes his discoveries hold out the definite prospect of reaching the ultimate goal of all biological science—the control and understanding of the life force itself. To the general public they promise in the near future bigger chickens, better eggs and more of them. The most startling revelations were reached by gradually increasing the "dosage" of X-ray. A definite deviation from the normal sex ratio in chickens hatched from X-rayed eggs was noted and the change was all in favor of the females. In other words the longer the eggs remained in the range of the X-rays the larger was the percentage of females hatched.

Difficult to Explain.

The fact was easier to find than the explanation. One explanation suggested by scientists who have examined the experiment is that the powerful rays succeed eventually in destroying the male producing chromosomes within the fertilized egg. That would sound like additional proof that the female is harder than the male even when it is only a germ cell, but Dr. Diefenbach is inclined to approach that solution with caution.

He is compiling a paper giving the complete results of his experiments to be presented at X-ray conferences in the United States and abroad.

DEATH OF ACCIDENTAL WOUNDED.
William Parker, colored, 40, of 8811 Michigan avenue, died in the Wilson hospital yesterday from a bullet wound he received Sunday when an automatic pistol he carried was accidentally discharged.

Paint Your Cheeks From the Inside
Rosy complexion and clear skin come with internal cleanliness.

A clear, soft, youthful skin, and bright, sparkling eyes are signs of radiant health. Poor complexions usually travel hand in hand with internal poisoning, a condition caused by decay-producing germs in the intestinal tract. These germs create poisons which are quickly absorbed into the blood, later to manifest themselves in pimples, boils, and other skin blemishes.

Brook Hill Acidophilus Milk is putting youthful color into thousands of smiling faces everywhere, because it is the natural champion of perfect health. It contains no drugs or medicine, but its millions of energizing cells drive out the germs of decay. With the germs gone, poisoning stops. With the blood freed of poisons, the improvement shows in the skin and complexion. U. S. GOES TO AID OF DRY SPY TO BE TRIED FOR THEFT

Quincy, Ill., April 30.—(Special)—

Once again has the long arm of the federal government reached out in an effort to save one of its prohibition enforcement officers from the consequences of his acts.

Daniel Hallowell of Chicago, former dry snoper indicted by the Schuyler county grand jury for grand larceny, has obtained a change of trial from the state to the federal courts.

Hallowell led snopers in a raid on the home of Albert Blewett, better known as "Bert Williams," east of Rushville, last August. A still and some liquor was found. Blewett sent to Virginia under guard of Sheriff Richard Jockish of Cass county and Hallowell remained to wait the arrival of a truck to haul away the still.

In some manner the house caught fire and when the owner returned after arranging bond, he found a number of articles missing. These included a radio set, a typewriter and other personal property.

According to Blewett's attorneys testimony before the grand jury showed that Hallowell was guilty of the thefts and he was indicted during the April term. Trial was set for early in May when the federal government obtained

JOYS OF FLYING VIVIDLY TOLD TO LURE AIR PUPILS

School Promises Students Unlimited Flights.

An investigation by The Tribune has revealed that more than 3,000 young men, attracted by the lure of possible riches to be gained in commercial flying, are receiving instruction in seventeen aviation schools in the Chicago district. This is the third article telling the experience of the reporter who visited each of these schools.

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.
"Men Wanted for Aviation. No Experience Required" is printed in black letters upon a large sign displayed in the window of the Chicago Aviation company's office and shop at 737 South Clark street. This was flanked by the huge colored photograph of Lindbergh without which none of the Chicago aviation schools seems to be complete.

The sign, it was found, was intended to attract prospective students. The Tribune investigator's hesitant request for information regarding flying instruction was welcomed by B. D. Brooks, a salesman with a convincing line of conversation who furnished a blue contract form and urged the applicant to sign it immediately. This contract contained a clause stipulating that if payments were defaulted, suit might be filed to collect.

Several students from different schools told the reporter that the schools took prompt legal action when payments of installments were delayed.

Tell Delights of Flying.
The Chicago Aviation company's literature and solicitors paint the delights of flying in glowing colors. Roy J. Bassett, chief pilot of the school, is credited with writing the following in a printed circular:

"Come with me and I will explain just how an airplane flies. If you read this carefully, you will know at the finish the pleasure a pilot experiences when he soars through the clouds on silver wings."

Mr. Brooks was more practical. "We offer unlimited flying time," he told the applicant. "We license all of our students and instructors. Other schools will give you a few hours of flying. We do not end flights until we feel each man is absolutely competent to fly an airplane. This unlimited flying time is specified right in the contract."

Officials of other schools visited by the reporter were unkind enough to assert that the phrase "unlimited flying time" does not guarantee the student any flying time at all.

School Has Two Planes.
The Chicago Aviation company prints a photograph in its literature of a large hangar upon which is painted the name of the firm. It was found that the company uses the hangar of another concern at the Municipal airport to house its two planes.

Mr. Brooks offered the six months' course of the school for $175. He shop where fifteen boys were working on motors and planes. There are 140 attending night classes and endeavoring to learn to fly on Saturday afternoons and Sundays.

"Students at our school are licensed by the government," is a point made by many of the schools and the would-be flyer is led to believe he is being given an unusual privilege. A student's license is given by the government to any person who makes application. This license permits the student to pilot an airplane only when receiving flying instructions.

200 Students in One School.
Perhaps the largest school in the Chicago district is run by the Aviation Service and Transport, 2307 South Michigan avenue. It owns a hangar of its own at the Municipal airport, 63d street and Chicago avenue, and more than 200 students are enrolled, paying $295 for the six months course. Ten to twelve hours of flying are guaranteed.

W. B. Ernst, a student in this school, was killed while flying with an instructor at the air field last December.

H. L. Owens, spokesman at this school, prefaced his talk with the usual raps against all other schools. He said his school was the only reliable one in Chicago and that there were only three good ones in the United States, the two others being in New York and California.

"At the end of our course you not only can fly; you can repair and construct an airplane," declared Owens. "Moreover, we find you a job. Thirty-seven out of fifty of our recent graduates had jobs before they completed the course."

This statement was in contrast to the assertion of aviation officials that there are no openings in aviation for graduates from flying schools who hold no pilot's license from the government.

Get Acquainted With Chicago

ALL of us are inclined to follow a beaten path. We go to work, to the theatre, to church over the same route and seldom see other parts of the city.

Chicago is unsurpassed in the number of its points of interest, the beauty and extent of its parks and in its many places of amusement.

A little booklet—SEEING GREATER CHICAGO—has just been published by the Chicago Surface Lines to aid sightseers in reaching points of interest by street car. It is intended primarily for the use of the hundreds of thousands of visitors who come to Chicago every year, but it will be interesting and helpful to Chicagoans as well.

Copies of the guide can be obtained by writing to the Chicago Surface Lines general offices at 231 South La Salle Street, or calling at any Surface Lines office.

Spend a few pleasant Saturday afternoons and Sundays this summer getting acquainted with Chicago.

WATCHES CREATED BY LEADING STYLISTS OF THE PARIS GRAND
COUTURE...MADE BY ELGIN...SOLD
BY MARSHALL FIELD & COMPANY

MADAME CHARLOTTE
Directrice of the House of Premet

THE PREMETS... Particularly favored by French women, the house of Premet allies the daring of modern Paris to the grace of old France in this design. Is there a frock in the world that wouldn't flutter with pleasure at such a flattering climax? Fashioned with jade, black, or ruby enamel... $35

THE PREMETS

MADAME AGNÈS—MODISTE

THE MADAME AGNÈS... As brilliant as one of Madame Agnès' own epigrams, and as lovely as the voice in which she speaks it... this model of the PARISIENNE sparkles with originality... The case is fashioned with jade, black, or ruby enamel... $35

THE MADAME AGNÈS

MADAME JENNY

THE MADAME JENNY... Who combines subtlety with daring more effectively than Madame Jenny? 'A frock by Jenny' means distinction everywhere... How much more, then, attaches to 'The watch by Jenny'? For there is only this one in the world. In a case fashioned with your choice of jade, black, or ruby enamel... $35

THE MADAME JENNY

from the ELGIN Parisienne to Marshall Field & Co: "Merci, Messieurs"

Quick to sponsor, as always, advanced designs of merit and beauty, Marshall Field and Company gave the new ELGIN PARISIENNE series of women's watches a sincere and gracious introduction to their clients.

In response, ELGIN acknowledges this tribute with pleasure, but with little surprise. The unmistakable, delectable air of Paris pervades the entire store of Marshall Field and Company. How natural, then, that this new guest from the center of fashion in Europe should be so charmingly welcomed to the home of the mode in the West.

The PARISIENNE now makes it possible to accent the French frocks and wraps of Marshall Field and Company with a watch that points them as expressively as a lovely gesture points a conversation. Every ensemble... for sport, tea, dancing, afternoon or evening... can now be given a telling, Gallic touch at the wrist... a place where the harmony of a costume often ended on a discordant note.

Smartness, accuracy, dependability... these have now been allied by ELGIN, in models designed by three of the leading stylists of the Paris Grand Couture. Three lovely case designs each fashioned with enamel and each in your choice of jade, black or ruby.

Most women will want all three designs... And those very clever women who know that to accent one's costume so happily is to enhance one's charm immeasurably, will smarten all their frocks with the color combinations of the PARISIENNE.

WOMAN FACES LIFE TERM FOR HAVING WHISKY

Second Victim of New Michigan Law.

Lansing, Mich., April 30.—(Special.)—Michigan's stringent habitual criminal law, under which four felons, he they murder or merely possession of a pint of gin, bring a life sentence, may be invoked to send a Lansing housewife to prison for the rest of her days, it was discovered here today with the arrest of Mrs. Alexandrina Kedrock.

Mrs. Kedrock, taken into custody by deputy sheriffs who say they found two quarts of moonshine whisky in her house.

She was formally charged with illegal possession of liquor, a felony in Michigan.

Mrs. Kedrock previously has been convicted of three felonies, all of them liquor law offenses. Upon the occasion of her last conviction in Circuit court here she was warned that she would run afoul of the habitual criminal act if she were caught with liquor again.

Fred Palm of Lansing is now serving a life sentence for possession of a pint of gin, that being the final offense which made his inquest as an habitual criminal possible. Palm is attacking the law in the Supreme court as unconstitutional.

HELD FOR SHOOTING SALOONKEEPER.
Ben Stahler, 45 years old, 1834 Portland Heights, South Chicago, is under arrest for shooting and wounding Joseph Sylvester, saloonkeeper, in front of his place at 1620 Shields avenue, Chicago Heights, on Sunday.

U. S. DRYS DID NOT SNIPE INTO CANADA, MELLON DECLARES

Washington, D. C., April 30.—(AP)—Secretary Mellon said today that an investigation by federal prohibition authorities had indicated that the recent shooting on the international border across from Detroit had taken place in Canada.

Canadian authorities protested to Washington over the shooting, which they charged had been done by American prohibition agents, but Mr. Mellon said that on the night of the shooting there were no prohibition boats in the river at this point and that the bullets had been fired from a rifle.

He pointed out that prohibition agents were not armed with rifles and that the weapons they did use would not carry across the river.

FOUR WATCHMEN ARE ARRESTED ON ROBBERY CHARGE

Four men, members of a watching service, were in custody last night charged with the robbery of a number of homes and shops they had been engaged to protect from thieves in the Beverly Hills district of the south side.

Those arrested are John Laechinger, 27, of 317 West 61st street, chief of the Beverly Watchman's service; James Adams, 27, of 505 West 62d street, a lieutenant of the service; Arthur Hersman, 21, of 7134 Dobson avenue, a sergeant, and Paul Tabor, 19, of 5431 Shields avenue, a patrolman.

Sergt. William Fox of South park police took up the trail which, police say, brought exposure of the watchmen after a motorcycle had been stolen from in front of his home at 1789 West 89th street last Wednesday night.

House Bombed Few Hours After Family Vacates It

A bungalow in the village of McCook was bombed early yesterday, only a few hours after Matt Kik, a quarry worker, and his family had moved from it into a house next door.

Kik attributed the blast to the jealousy of other workmen in the quarry in which he worked.

"I am not a union man," he said, "and most of the others are. There were some hard feelings when I was recently promoted to the job of operating a steam shovel." The explosion tore away a part of the walls and wrecked a furnace.

EGYPTIANS BACK DOWN AS BRITAIN SENDS WARSHIPS

How to Ultimatum; Delay Objectionable Law.

CAIRO, April 30.—(U. P.)—The discussion of the assembly bill which was before the Egyptian senate was postponed until the next session at secret sessions of both chambers of parliament, tonight.

This decision followed the ultimatum from the British government demanding that the bill be withdrawn. The British objected to the bill on the grounds that it would interfere with their carrying out the guarantee to protect foreign interests in Egypt as contained in the British declaration of 1922. The bill prohibited police interference with assemblies and processions unless an actual breach of the peace occurred.

Causes Excitement in Britain.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.] LONDON, April 30.—Great Britain's three day ultimatum to Cairo demanding the withdrawal of the assembly bill, which was followed by the dispatch this morning of five British warships from Malta, for Alexandria, aroused a wave of suppressed excitement here. Sir Austen Chamberlain, foreign secretary, declared in the house of commons that unless the Egyptian government gave the required assurances of its withdrawal of the offensive bill by 7 p. m. May 2, Great Britain would feel free to take such action as is required. This was interpreted to mean the seizure of the Egyptian customs.

The five warships hurrying to Alexandria include two battleships carrying eight 15 inch guns, and twelve 6 inch guns. Other ships from the Mediterranean fleet already are reported standing by.

CHARGES FILM STAR LEFT $5,000 IN UNPAID BILLS

Los Angeles, April 30.—(U. P.)—Carter de Haven, stage and screen star, and Mrs. Flora Parker de Haven, his teammate and co-star before the footlights and the Kiegts, and his wife for nearly 23 years, were arrayed against each other here today in an alimony hearing in connection with her suit for divorce.

Mrs. De Haven told the court that her husband left her with $5,000 in unpaid bills, and she alleged he earned $2,000 in the last year. Mrs. De Haven said he had given her only $400 in the 28 weeks since their separation.

BRAZIL TO GIVE FORD FIFTY YEAR RUBBER RIGHTS

BELEM, Brazil, April 30.—(U. P.)—The newspaper Folha do Norte prints what is purported to be the terms of the contract between Henry Ford and the state of Para for the establishment of rubber plantations. The state congress has not as yet ratified the contract, which is necessary for it to become effective.

The article says Ford would have after ratification two years to begin operations. The contract gives the concession for fifty years and provides that Ford shall plant approximately 1,000 acres each during the first three years.

He would be given rights to exploitation of natural resources both above and below ground.

POINCARE TO PEG FRANC; BIG LOAN WILL BE ISSUED

Premier's Victory Sends Stocks on Boom.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
PARIS, April 30.—After yesterday's smashing vindication at the polls, Premier Raymond Poincaré lost no time today in starting the ball rolling toward what now is believed to be imminent stabilization of the French currency.
While the Paris bourse boomed with optimism over the premier's victory, the ministry of finance announced a huge conversion loan, which has been discussed the last two weeks as the first pre-stabilization maneuver, will be floated May 7. It will be in the form of 5 per cent bonds, redeemable in 75 years, to fund that part of the floating debt represented by advances from the Bank of France, national defense bonds, and the short term "credit national" bonds due in 1928 and 1929. This is the first significant gesture for lifting the 12,000,000,000 franc [about $489,028,000] mortgage, which the bank has on the state.
The announcement came in the midst of a boom such as the bourse has not seen in years.
So formidable was the flood of purchases that it was found impossible to quote prices. All the French rentes soared.
With all the returns in, everybody is claiming a victory of sorts, except the communists, who are grimly preparing to drown their disappointment over the loss of half their seats in May day disorder tomorrow if the military measures, which tonight are transforming the Paris region into an armed camp, do not prove too awesome. Ten parties are represented in the new chamber of deputies.

CROP FEE CALLED A STEP TOWARD U. S. REVOLUTION

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Washington, D. C., April 30.—[Special.]—The equalization fee provision of the McNary-Haugen farm bill was attacked by members of both parties today in the house.
Representatives Garrett (Dem., Tenn.), Stephenson (Dem., S. C.), and Fort (Rep., N. J.) were among those assailing the proposition. Representative Ketcham (Rep., Mich.) and Jones (Dem., Tex.) argued for the export debenture plan of farm relief. Representative Garrett, the minority leader of the house, said he would be glad to support the equalization fee provision if he could believe it rested upon sound constitutional and economic grounds and that its operation would benefit agriculture.

"But I have never been able to bring myself to the belief that it will prove workable in fact or beneficial to the farmer," he said. "It is my firm belief that such a system would subject the agricultural interests to an exploitation exceeding anything that we have ever witnessed and I fear it would lead almost, if not quite, to revolution."

More Than Arms and Legs

H. Gordon Selfridge, one of the world's foremost merchants, says in his book, "The Romance of Commerce."

"There is so much more to the employee than two arms and two legs. There is the spirit of enthusiasm and earnestness and 'I will' which means more to the employer than ten pairs of arms and legs. And loyalty is a quality to be earned by the employer from the employee and only earned by fair, friendly, generous treatment."

These are the views of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana)—views which it has expressed concretely. By all the means known to enlightened modern business, this Company has endeavored to earn and hold the loyalty of its employees.

The Industrial Relations Plan, the Death Benefits, the Annuity Plan and the Employees' Stock Purchasing Plans are concrete expressions of its desire to give employees "fair, friendly, generous treatment."

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is a human organization—made up of 27,010 human beings. These men and women are not considered merely as working units—so many arms and legs—so much mind and muscle. Each is an individual who makes his contribution to the enormous capital of human effort necessary to carry on the work of the Company.

All men are equal in the opportunities they enjoy in this Company. There is no place in the organization out of reach of the man with the ambition and the ability to fill it.

This democratic policy has developed a smooth-running, efficient organization in which every man's ability is utilized to best advantage, in which every job is done by the man best qualified to do it.

In addition, this policy promotes a feeling of friendly cooperation among employees. Men in responsible positions have consideration born of actual experience for those lower in the ranks.

Men in the lower ranks have respect for those higher up because they know that these men have earned the right to their responsibilities.

As a result, a friendly helpful spirit prevails among employees. They are bound together by mutual appreciation and by a profound loyalty to their Company.

The spirit within the organization is reflected without and it is this spirit that is fundamental to the success of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

The Red Crown discs peppering the Middle West have won their friendly welcome among motorists, not by their shape or color, but because of the spirit behind them, the spirit of thousands of men and women who work with enthusiasm, satisfied only when they have done their best.

ORDERS REFUND OF $2,000,000 BY W. O. W. OFFICERS

Court Rules for Woodmen Policy Holders.

Lincoln, Neb., April 30.—(P)—W. A. Fraser, sovereign commander, and other officers of the Woodmen of the World, were ordered to pay back $2,000,000 of W. O. W. funds used in the organization of the Globe Life Insurance company in a tentative decree handed down today by District Judge Fred Shepherd in a suit of W. B. Price of Lincoln and two other policy holders to recover the money. The formal decree will not be filed until after several details are worked out. The differences between interested parties were heard by Judge Shepherd. The plaintiffs contended that the whole fraternal system was on trial in the case. If the court held for the defendants, they asserted, officers of fraternal companies could, in effect, transform their organizations at any time. The defendants declared the legal reserve company was merely an adjunct to the fraternal organization, broadened its scope of activity, and benefited its members. "The real purpose, wrongfully and fraudulently conceived on the part of the defendants," the decree said, "was to get the stock of the Globe Life Insurance company into their own hands and under their own control, to appropriate the $2,000,000, and to develop the company in the field of the Woodmen of the World membership and by use of the Woodmen organization. The company proceeded in the disposition of its stock in such a plan that all of the individual members of the Woodmen of the World could not by any possibility acquire the same, while it would be entirely possible for a comparatively few of said members to acquire the whole of it, to the exclusion of the rest." The defendants announced they would appeal the case to the Supreme court of Nebraska.

Every Passenger Counts

The Illinois Central System is equipped and organized to provide good passenger service for small as well as for large requirements. The larger items in passenger service, such as excursion and long-distance travel, attract the most attention and provide the bulk of present-day railway passenger revenue, but the smaller items—the movement of individual passengers for short distances—play an important part in the success of railway passenger business. Both kinds of patronage are needed and wanted.

Trains are a virtual necessity for long trips. Here are some reasons why they should also be used for short trips:

Travel by train is pleasant and cheap. The person who rides ten miles as well as the person who rides a thousand will find clean and comfortable cars on Illinois Central trains. The Illinois Central organization has a reputation for the kind of courtesy which goes far to make a journey pleasant. Then, too, the price of the service is much less, as a rule, than the cost of operating an automobile an equal distance.

Patronage of the train helps to insure a continuance of its essential, all-weather service. The passenger service of a railroad is, in one way or another, an always-important asset to communities along its line. Trains are just about indispensable for the carrying of mail, baggage and express, and for the carrying of passengers they have no equal in safety and dependability. Lack of patronage, however, imperils not merely one but all of these advantages.

Good service and low prices, on the railroad as well as in other lines of business, are made possible by mass production. The greater the volume of business, therefore, other factors being equal, the more the railroad and its patrons stand to benefit therefrom.

No matter what the length or the frequency of their journeys, travelers on the Illinois Central System are assured of a cordial appreciation of their patronage and a sincere desire to merit its continuance.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

L. A. DOWNS,
President, Illinois Central System.

TURKEY CONVICTS 3 U. S. TEACHERS OF PROSELYTING

BROUSSA, Turkey, April 30.—(AP)—Three American teachers in the American school here, Miss Edith Sanderson of Berkeley Cal., Miss Lucille Day and Miss Jennie Jilson, today were pronounced guilty of contravening Turkish regulations against dissemination of religious propaganda.

The Broussa court sentenced each woman to three days in prison and to a fine of three lira [about $13]. Because the teachers are women and foreigners, they were permitted to make the American school their prison without guards, with the promise that they stay inside the grounds.

The women, who have denied violating the regulations regarding religious instruction, immediately gave notice of appeal and the sentences were withheld pending the decision of the Superior court.

Charged with Proselyting.

Miss Sanderson and Miss Day were found guilty of attempts to convert students and Miss Jilson, who has been head of the school for sixteen years, was convicted for allowing grace to be said before meals and for observances of Sunday.

Miss Sanderson and Miss Day plan to go to Constantinople tomorrow. Miss Sanderson is going to Italy Thursday, but said that she would return to Turkey to serve her sentence if the Superior court sustains the trial judge.

Conduct Own Defense.

The trial, which was completed on April 28, was marked by a vigorous defense offered by Miss Sanderson, who spoke in Turkish, denying that propaganda in contravention of Turkish law had been carried on at the school. She admitted that she had discussed the New Testament with two girls students, but stated that the conversations took place after school hours and was in no sense an attempt at proselyting.

Miss Day also spoke in Turkish in her own defense, denying that religious propaganda had been disseminated at the school. A similar defense was entered in behalf of Miss Jilson. The latter, who is sixty years of age, was awarded three medals by Turkey.

SENATE TO KEEP TAB ON CAMPAIGN FUNDS, ITS RESOLUTION SAYS

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., April 30.—(Special.)—Investigation of presidential campaign contributions and expenditures was ordered today by the senate.

The senate without a record vote adopted a resolution offered by Senator Robinson (Dem., Ark.), the minority leader, proposing the appointment by the vice president of a committee of five. Vice President Dawes will announce tomorrow the names of the special committee. It will be made up of three Republicans and two Democrats.

The resolution applies specifically to the pre-convention campaigns, but it is expected that before congress adjourns the authority of the committee will be extended to cover the election campaigns during its recess.

In presenting the resolution Senator Robinson made no charges of improper methods in the present pre-convention campaigns, but said it was considered desirable to have a committee go into the matter just as the Dorch committee did in 1924 and the Kenyon committee in 1920.

Before adopting the resolution the senate received from its committee on contingent expenses a report approving the expenditure of $25,000 by the special committee.

Senator Walsh (Dem., Mass.) urged the fixing of a limit on amounts which candidates may expend.

Rainless days... cool nights in this romantic summer vacation land

Novel things to do and see

EVERY vacation wish is answered in Southern California—a land entirely new to you with its strange sights, surprising contrasts and endless entertainment.

You may plan for weeks ahead; rain is practically unknown here in summer. Temperatures are moderate, with an average of 69 degrees for 31 years. Nights are cool; you will need wraps. Nine nights out of ten you'll sleep under blankets to awaken with refreshed enthusiasm.

Within a few miles or a few hours of Los Angeles—Pacific Coast metropolis—is everything the Alps, Riviera, Sahara and Capri can offer! Here is the gateway to the High Sierra, to 271 miles of ocean beaches that stretch from Santa Barbara to San Diego, to islands that rise sheer out of the sea, to the desert!

And, to reach these majestic scenes, you drive through orange, lemon, walnut and avocado groves, past Old Spanish Missions, through alluring Southland cities—San Diego, Riverside, San Bernardino, Santa Ana, Ojai, Ventura. 5000 miles of boulevard roads lead to every interest point; train and trolley service takes you everywhere, even to the tops of nearby mile-high mountain peaks!

Southern California is Sportland Supreme. Here are 65 ever green golf courses, tennis galore, swimming pools. Mountain bridle paths put a new lure in saddle sport. Ocean, lake or stream fishing. Mt. Wilson (6200 feet) and Mt. Lowe—ideal for climbing—are but a few miles distant from Los Angeles.

And, the beaches along the placid blue Pacific! Sea sledding, surf boarding, canoeing, yachting—right off shore! Swimming or bathing here is probably the most delightful you have ever experienced. A brief ride from any Southern California point and you are on this "American Riviera." Santa Monica, Long Beach, Santa Barbara, La Jolla, Laguna, Balboa and a dozen other coast cities present attractions that are thoroughly delightful.

Los Angeles' growth and activity are inspiring. Los Angeles County is among the richest in natural resources. Last year its agricultural products approximated $72,000,000; oil fields are valued at a billion dollars!

The Pacific Southwest Exposition at Long Beach, beginning July 27, and continuing through August, will enable you to visualize the wonders, wealth and progress of this vast Southwest Empire.

Hollywood, adjoining Los Angeles, is movie land headquarters and the home of the great picture makers. And, at Hollywood, too, are presented "Symphonies Under the Stars" in the great mountain-surrounded bowl. Every day and night hour in this land is a thrill, a novelty!

JADWIN URGES $27,000,000 U. S. LAKE PROGRAM

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., April 30.—(Special.)—Recommendation that the United States proceed at once with the deepening of great lakes channels and the construction of works to compensate for the Chicago and other water diversions was made by the war department today in a special report to congress.

The report, signed by Maj. Gen. Edgar Jadwin, advised making the interconnecting channels between the lakes deep enough to accommodate boats of twenty-three foot draft at all times of the year. This would necessitate depths of from twenty-four to twenty-seven feet. Gen. Jadwin set the total cost at $24,000,000.

The war department figures disclosed it would cost in the neighborhood of $3,400,000 to construct compensating works to counteract the Chicago lake levels caused by the canal gravel dredging, and from other causes. The annual savings to great lakes shippers, the report disclosed, would be $450,000.

May Assesses Chicago.

"When the question of final diversion at Chicago is determined," said Gen. Jadwin, "the Chicago drainage district can be called upon to pay its share. If any, of the cost of these works."

The engineers estimated that the Chicago cost for compensatory works would be $1,750,000. Regardless of whether the diversion at Chicago is halted eventually or not, the war department believes it would be the part of wisdom to build the works when the channels are deepened.

Gen. Jadwin estimated that the annual savings to American shippers if a twenty-three foot project were adopted would be $4,235,000.

Gen. Jadwin advised the committee that while it might be necessary to dig to twenty-seven feet later if the St. Lawrence waterway is built, there is no necessity for that depth now.

Harbor Costs $14,000,000.

The general advised against including the costs of deepening the harbors in the present legislation, saying each project should be acted on separately. Improvement of the harbors for the twenty-three foot project would cost $14,000,000.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 30.—(Special.)—Gilda Gray, queen of quivers, may be considering a divorce from her millionaire husband, Oil Boag, but "it's nobody's business but my own," she declared on returning to her home town today.

She refused, however, to deny that she may become a divorcee for the second time.

Rumors that the stage and film star was estranged from her husband emanated from Chicago, where she is said to have refused several times to see Mr. Boag when he called on her prior to leaving for Germany, where he will produce a moving picture.

Likes Music Played and Way It's Done.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

The Goldman orchestra band was called on to assume entire responsibility for the success of the weekly New York family party through W.G.N. 830 to 9:30, and put over a stirring concert. This band is a brilliant, sonorous symphony orchestra, both as to tone and to the character of selections played.

It is difficult to conceive of a "Tannhauser" overture being given a richer or more stirring treatment than was accorded that number. List's "Second Rhapsody" lost all its commonplace, the wind instruments doing wonders, and an inserted harp cadenza adding charm. Special features numbers kept one interested at every moment. The announcing 1 for one consider a model.

A heavy and strictly orchestral program came through W.G.N. 830 to 9:30, but I missed the announcements, so this recognition will have to suffice from my source of information.

The German program from WLS, 830 to 9, gave occasion for admiring the voice of Sascha Corado, bass-baritone, I could not mark my mind about Helene Holstein, soprano. I venture the advice that those in charge minimize announcing and concentrate their musical offerings.

It seems as though Henry Sellinger's violin recital, W-G-N, 930 to 10, would be disappointing because the opening selections had been heard too frequently. I was pleasantly fooled. For this recital developed speed and power and interest progressively.

This is dangerous ground, but from WMB, 8 to 9, I heard some youthful choir voices singing, well, "When They Ring Them Golden Bells" was one number. I believe I understand both tone and psychology, and to be in depressing for young people to become as old in years and as sad in heart as songs of this character seem.

The announcing is not cheerful either. The slumber hour from New York, through WBBH, 1015 to 11, was, as always, one of the charming things of any evening it is on the air. It is quiet, restful, and refined. The creator of this slumber music hour is to be congratulated.

Jews Debate Making Women Temple Equals

That women be granted the privilege of joining Jewish congregations as members of equal status with men was a proposal made yesterday in the convention of the United Synagogue of America in the Stevens hotel.

"In the governing of public organizations and the handling of public funds, women who are generally regarded as spendthrifts are almost overrepresented," declared Mrs. Louis M. Epstein of Brookline, Mass., in an address before the Women's league.

"They are conservative about undertaking large financial responsibilities and when they undertake them they want to know where the money is coming from. It has become a disease among the congregations to out-build one another to the extent that some have mortgaged their grandchildren."

Rabbi A. M. Herschman, Detroit, discussing Jewish education at the general session, declared that children should not only be given a knowledge of religion but also should be taught the practice of it.

Lovely singer says It's Wonderful!

"Since using MELLO-GLO I can appear all evening without repowdering," says Barbara Carrington, well-known singer. "It stays on longer yet does not clog the pores or leave the skin dry." A new wonderful French process helps MELLO-GLO Face Powder to keep ugly shine away, and its smooth, velvety texture gives one the coveted bloom of youth.

EDWARD STANGER, OLDEST MODERN WOODMAN, DIES

Edward Stanger, 86, said to have been the oldest living member of the Modern Woodmen of America, died yesterday at his home, 1555 Forest St., Evanston, following a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Stanger, a native of England, came to Chicago at the close of the civil war. He retired from business about ten years ago. High Winds and Burning Rubbish Cause 24 Fires

High winds sweeping over burning rubbish piles in various parts of Chicago yesterday carried sparks to roofs and caused twenty-four fire alarms to be turned in between 2 and 5 p. m. The damage in each instance was small. An electric sign in front of 2333 Ogden avenue was blown down during the day.

NINE MORE BITTEN AS POLICE OPEN NEW WAR ON DOGS

Nine residents of the north side, six of them small children, were attacked and bitten yesterday by dogs. At the same time, police, acting under orders of Health Commissioner Arnold Kogel, accompanied dog catching wagons throughout the city and corralled 200 dogs in the opening of a new campaign to rid the streets of untrained and unleashed animals. Kogel's order followed the reports that 50 persons were bitten Saturday.

Five persons yesterday were victims of a single Boston bull terrier which was clubbed to death by Police-men Edward Anderson, Henry Versgrove, and John Loden at Addison street and Southport avenue after it bit Betty Patsy, 5, of 1243 Byron street; Adella Carson, 17, of 3643 Herndon street; Lillie Helwig, 4, of 1321 Addison street; Thomas Forrestall, 8, of 1308 Byron street, and Mrs. Maggie Backus, 45, of 1319 Addison street.

Others bitten were John Sodar, 3, of 1448 Wolfram street; Gertrude Bruger, 7, of 1917 Sheffield avenue; Edward Kreslinski, 17, of 1909 West North avenue, and Leola Schmar, 4, of 1800 Eastwood avenue.

Report Primo de Rivera Plans to Wed Tomorrow

PARIS, April 30.—Unconfirmed reports from the Spanish border state that the marriage of the Spanish dictator, Gen. Primo de Rivera, to Senorita Mercedes Castellanos will take place on Wednesday instead of on Sept. 24, as was originally planned. No reason is given for the brusque change in plans. Senorita Castellanos is a member of a Spanish diplomatic family and was a Red Cross nurse in France during the war. Gen. de Rivera is 48 years old, and his fiancée, who also is reported to be one of the richest women in Spain, is 47.

NEW EARTHQUAKE KNOCKS DOWN 100 HOUSES IN GREECE

ATHENS, April 30.—Earthquakes are continuing in the Corinth region. Yesterday noon a serious quake at the village of Keheo, in the Corinth region, destroyed more than 100 houses and another 150 were rendered uninhabitable. Additional reports of the earthquake catastrophe at Corinth were supplied by passengers aboard the steamer Atrant, which was anchored in the port of Corinth. They said the steamer shook and trembled as if it was being hurled against great rocks, the entire time the quake lasted.

HA! PARIS SCENTS PLOT IN U. S. FILM STARS' INVASION

See Plan, to Balk French
Ban on Yankee Movies.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
PARIS, April 30.—In the battle to keep the French market for American films, Hollywood is springing its trump cards. The moves have astonished even the astute French producers, who are behind the government's quota law on foreign films.

Adolphe Menjou and his fiancée, Kathryn Curver, came to Paris several weeks ago and won the immediate interest of the movie public, which, like the American, must have its heroes and heroines. Today the Fairbanks-Pickford couple reached Paris and likewise jumped into the public eye. Now it is learned there will be a regular invasion of the most popular American stars this spring and summer, and it has suddenly dawned on the French that all this globe trotting is not just by accident.

Blame Will Hays.
According to the French movie men, it is part of the Machiavellian plan of a gentleman who has become notorious on this side of the water in recent weeks—W. H. Hays. He has evolved a "public appeal" campaign and, it is claimed, has cabled Hollywood asking as many as possible of the celluloid luminaries to flock to Paris.

Mr. Hays timed his invasion with the announcement that American film producing houses in France will close down. He figures as soon as the French public discovers it is to be deprived of the films of the personages whose names it sees every day in the papers, and whose faces it sees at Longchamps and on the boulevards, there will be an uproar. The French producers already have begun to fear this will prove true.

Anyway, the American film star is going to see Edouard Herriot tomorrow. The minister of education has been so busy with the elections he has not had time even to consider Hollywood's demands for a revision of the restrictions in American films.

French Press Is Bitter.
The French press, however, is replete with condemnation of Yankee film and denunciations of Mr. Hays.

French film circles believe that despite the nonchalance with which the American agencies in Paris are closing down, Hollywood counts much of its profits in the foreign field, because it is claimed the proceeds in the United States generally only cover the cost of production. The distributing agencies may close, but the big American movie theaters still are open and present supply of reels holds out. After that if the French public wants American films it can take steps to get them.

"Over 27 per cent of all liquor law violation appeals from Marion county during this period were filed by Robinson's law firm and 82.3 per cent of the business of Robinson's law firm in the Supreme court during this period was defending liquor law violators. New York, April 30.—The stock market yesterday was characterized by a sharp decline in the early hours, followed by a recovery and a final rise to close at a net gain of 1.70 points. The volume of trading was heavy, with a total of 1,400,000 shares changing hands.

The list presented an irregular appearance at the close, although a few specialties had big advances. There were about fifty high attained during the day's fluctuations, buying in oil, where optimistic trade reports have occurred, being the outstanding feature. The turnover passed the 4,000,000 share mark again.

General Electric Lower.

General Electric reached a high for the day at 166 1/2, but sold off and closed at 165 1/2, with net loss of 1 1/2 points. General Motors closed at 13 1/2, after reaching a peak of 14 1/2.

The oil group picked up a following in short order. Standard Oil of New Jersey, Standard Oil of New York, Sinclair Consolidated, Louisiana Oil, and Mexican Sea-board were among stocks that soared to new high levels for the year or longer. They lost the better part of their gains later.

The specialties stood out in the final rally that swept many issues up to their highest levels for the day. American Bank Note scored 5 1/2 points; Brooklyn Union, 4; Commercial Solvents, 5 1/2; City, 3; Curtiss Aeroplane, 7; Davidson Chemical, 3 1/2; Electric Autolight, 8 1/2; Otis Elevator, 5 1/2; and Wright Aeroplane, 5.

Rail Shares Steady.

Rails were steady practically all day, although Delaware and Hudson went through strenuous activity without much to show for its efforts at the close. Enthusiastic buying ran it up to 122 1/2 during the early hours, but it closed almost two points down from its peak, with only a fractional gain. Lehigh Valley, Wabash, and New York Central, three issues concerned in the merger move, merely held their ground. There was an upward drive in Western Maryland, which gained 3 1/2 points, Missouri Pacific, up 1 1/2, and New York, Ontario and Western, up 1 point.

Cock o' the Walk

HE American Weekly rests its case on the size of its circulation, the size of its page and the size of its markets.

It offers distribution, the combination of a bigger group of readers, a bigger consumption capacity and a bigger color display than any other publication in the world.

Five and a half million copies concentrated in the country's densest populated and most active trading territories—a Cyclopean advertising influence with but a single eye to metropolitan and city service—built on the scale of industries which are also bursting the shell of precedent and the measure of yesterday's feeble imagination.

The American Weekly is cock o' the walk throughout Uncle Sam's Ready-money Belt.

The communities to which its coverage is saturatingly confined play banker, manufacturer, pace-maker and back-bone for the continent.

The surplus wealth of the country is in their bank-accounts, the prosperity of America is vested in their stability.

The American Weekly reaches busy multitudes, not empty-mileage—steady spenders, not now-and-then buyers—weekly incomes, not seasonal earnings.

No single concern has a production sufficient for any of their important needs.

It takes a fifteen-million-portion percolator to fill their daily coffee cup. And a cargo of sugar to sweeten it.

American Weekly circulation spells power—not the casual, trickly energy of scattered streams of readers—but the terrific, constructive power of a Niagara—the incalculable selling power of five and a half million breakfast tables—of five and a half million wardrobes and medicine chests—the buying power of five and a half million maximum wages and salaries—power to keep output at full tilt—power to maintain schedules at peak-tip.

No branded article has as many customers as American Weekly readers. No national medium, regardless of type or price, has an equal proportion of big city and big town folk in its circulation.

Its quality is practical quality—balance-sheet quality, the only type of quality that sustains profits and maintains dividends.

The Blue Book isn't big enough to hold its list of readers, but they certainly do crowd the order books.

Their annual earnings mount into the dizzy billions, and they earn them from frost-proof, rain-proof, drought-proof, blight-proof trades and occupations.

They toss half a million cars on the junk heap every year—stock their pantries every week and expend more for tooth pastes, face creams, perfumes, hair tonics, radios, shampoos, manicure supplies, silk stockings, mouth washes, cigarettes and chewing gum in a season than Grover Cleveland's Congresses used to vote in a session.

They pitch 275,000,000 dimes on Sunday news-stands for American Weeklies alone, and they hold door keys to all department, chain and neighborhood stores in their pockets.

If you want their markets, use their medium.

Sixteen thousand dollars a color page.

Or, for comparative value's sake, figure the rate at one-third of a cent per copy.

"The fewer are higher."

"Are my real estate bonds selling for more than I paid for them?"
"Can I buy other real estate bonds of equal safety at prices which will bring me a higher yield?"

INDUSTRY

BY O. A. MATHER.

May finds business men and financiers mildly optimistic over trade prospects. The monthly reviews appearing yesterday sounded a cheerful

note and the heads of several railroads reported improving traffic.

The opening of May finds general business still moving toward betterment, albeit that progress continues to be somewhat halting and marked by irregularity," the National City Bank of New York says. "Among constructive developments we give particular weight to the recent strong advances in prices of agricultural products to levels well above those of a year ago. Practically all of the major agricultural commodities might now be said to be on a paying basis. A further favorable factor is the continued abundance of funds for commercial purposes.

Corporation Earnings Favorable.

"Corporation earnings statements for the first quarter show a good deal of variation, but on the whole are encouraging considering the unpromising way in which the quarter began. Excluding

General Motors and United States Steel, the tabulation of earnings of 194 advanced companies thus far reported reveals 71 increases and 23 decreases compared with the first quarter of last year, with the total showing an increase of $15,777,000. Prospects, moreover, point to still better showing for the second quarter.

"One section of the country where improvement has been definite is the unfortunate that this section has been more and more a result of the slow recovery. With last year's bountiful crops, however, the northwest is now moving ahead at a rapid rate."

Rail Chiefs Optimistic.

Three railroad presidents expressed optimism. Carl Gray of the Union Pacific said freight loadings still are showing a consistent increase over last year, largely in agricultural products. Crop conditions are favorable and good weather has enabled the road to advance maintenance work considerably. The lumber business, however, still is lagging.

W. B. Storey of the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe said freight loadings are getting up nearer to a year ago, with last week showing a comparative increase for the first time this year. What prospects are good, cattle raising is happy and the lumber situation is not getting any worse.

N. L. Howard of the Chicago Great Western predicted operating results for the first half of this year will be larger than a year ago, with April results about the same as last year.

Increase in Dividends.

Thirty-five corporations have increased their dividend rates since the beginning of 1928, eighty-two have declared extra dividends, fourteen have paid back stock dividends, and four have paid back cash dividends. Eighteen corporations have omitted their dividends and fifteen have reduced payments.

The Coca Cola company yesterday increased its annual common stock rate from $5 to $6 by declaring a quarterly dividend of $1.50. The Curtis Publishing company has declared its usual quarterly dividend of 50 cents on its common stock. The Miller Rubber company omitted the quarterly dividend of $2

on its preferred stock, due at this time.

Chicago bank clearings for April were

$3,200,000, an increase of $200,000 over the $3,000,000 reported for April last year and a gain of $400,000 over the $2,800,000 reported for March.
